Ohio Environmental Council Hires New Staff Attorney

Columbus, OH – The Ohio Environmental Council (OEC) has hired E. Camille Yancey as a Staff Attorney responsible for OEC's clean water litigation, as well as related legislative and policy work.

As Staff Attorney, Camille will focus on energy efficiency and renewable energy, including representing the OEC in cases before the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio. Camille is an active member of the Environmental Law Committees of both the Ohio State Bar Association and the Columbus Bar Association. She is licensed to practice law in the state of Ohio and the U.S. District Court Southern District of Ohio.

Camille contracted with OEC's Ohio Environmental Law Center for several months before being hired full-time. Her other legal experience includes her work as an attorney for Pete Precario as well as internships with Ohio Environmental Protection Agency and the Ohio Attorney General's Office.

Camille received a J.D. with an environmental law concentration from Capital University Law School. She is originally from Dayton.

The mission of the Ohio Environmental Council (OEC) is to secure healthy air, land, and water for all who call Ohio home. The OEC is Ohio's leading advocate for fresh air, clean water, and sustainable land use. The OEC has a 40-year history of innovation, pragmatism, and success. Using legislative initiatives, legal action, scientific principles, and statewide partnerships, we secure a healthier environment for Ohio's families and communities.
